ALMA MATER

*All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you,
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor,
You ever more shall be
The model of our future years
And all eternity.*

*When'er we have to leave you,
We never will forget
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your loyal daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.*

*Irene Taylor, '47
Jean Crotty, '47*

INVOCATION

Read By

BARBARA ELLEN TAYLOR

President of the Graduating Class

Upon this graduation day, we look to the future. Life is not a place of habitation nor an end in itself, but rather a path along which we direct our own destiny. In this process of becoming, let us be mindful of humility as the way to grace and dignity as well as the lessons the past has taught us.

Let us seek success but not let the search ruin our character.

Let us attain self-knowledge as the foundation of wisdom.

Let us be true to ourselves and loyal to our convictions.

Let us remember that it is enjoying what we have, not how much we have, that brings happiness.

Let us gain peace of mind as a fountainhead for promoting peace throughout the world.

Let us step to the tune of our own drummer but heed the rights of others.

Above all, let us bear in mind that,

"God does not die on the day when we cease to believe in a personal diety, but we die on the day when our lives cease to be illumined by the steady radiance, renewed daily, of a wonder, the source of which is beyond all reason."

Dag Hammarskjold.
